Practice Questions:

(See attached sheet)

These are very easy questions that the child can practice before the event. During the event, the announcer will ask your child two/three of these questions so make sure you practice all of them.

Parent/Guardian Participation:

All parents/guardians are asked to help with decorating the float. It takes a lot of time and effort to get all of this done in a short period of time. You are required to be at all of the scheduled practices so you know what is planned and so that you are able to practice with your child at home.

Parade Participation:

All contestants will be entered into the parade. We also ask that a parent/guardian walks in the parade alongside the float to carry their child's picture banner and to help keep everything under control. The parent/guardian may throw candy but the girls won't be able to throw from the float due to safety concerns.

Parade Liability Form:

(See attached form)

This must be signed and turned in by the parent/guardian at the first meeting.

Duties and Responsibilities of Little Miss:

If your child wins a title you will have responsibilities to attend certain events in Benton City.

Events:

Required Events

*Benton City 4th of July flag raising ceremony and parade

*Benton City Daze parade and attend Little Miss the following year to crown the next Little Miss BC

*Winterfest Parade

*Optional events to attend:

Prosser parade, West Richland parade, Benton City car show, National Night Out, and other Chamber of Commerce events.
